VOL. XIV. PART I.

A Selected List of Books

¶ Recommended by the Ontario Library Association for Purchase by the Public Libraries of this Province.

¶ The books selected have been chosen to meet as far as possible the wants of the Libraries for new books at a moderate price, the smaller libraries being kept especially in view.

¶ The names of the publishers and the retail prices have been added so that any bookseller can order them.

¶ Selections from the Books of 1915.

A fresh and romantic study of French-Canadian life. One of the best sketches yet written.

Le Queux, William....."At the Sign of the Sword".....Sully, $1.00

A story of love and war in Belgium with the horrors of the German atrocities.

Leroux, Gaston....."The Bride of the Sun"....McClelland (McBride), $1.25

A story of Peru, blending the present with the past and utilizing a typical South American revolution. Full of excitement.

Lincoln, Natalie Sumner....."C. O. D.".....Copp (Appleton), $1.25

Another thriller from an expert in mystery stories with murders. Scandals and love in plenty.

Little, Frances, pseud. (Mrs. Fannie Caldwell Macaulay)...."The House of the Misty Star".....McClelland (Century), $1.25

Another of the author's charming Japanese romances.

Locke, William J....."Jaffery".....Oxford Univ. Press (Lane), $1.35

The story of Jaffery, the great war correspondent, and Liosha, the Albanian widow. One of the leading novels of the year and as unconventional as Locke generally is.

Lyall, David....."The Consolation Bureau"....Hodder & Stoughton, $1.25

Lyons, A. Neil....."Kitchener Chaps"....Oxford Univ. Press (Lane), 35c.

Fourteen clever sketches, mostly of privates in Kitchener's new army.

Macgrath, Harold....."The Voice in the Fog"..McLeod & Allen (Bobbs-Merrill), 75c.

Can a robber be detected by his voice only? What about possible complications? This story is full of them.

A group of short stories grouped around the central theme of how one's will or main ambition fashions his life.

Van Vorst, Marie....."Mary Moreland"..McClelland (Little, Brown), $1.35

A capable and attractive New York business girl faces a great temptation through her employer's love for her. The selfishness of her mother and her employer's wife intensifies the temptation. A strong story of her successful struggle with passion.

Vance, Louis Joseph....."Sheep's Clothing".....Copp (Little), $1.25

How a young lady (under an assumed name) runs away to escape a marriage: and how her father, a detective, a New York society man, a beautiful widow and others are involved make up this story.

Wales, Hubert....."Thirty Days".....Cassell, $1.25

One of the "spookiest" of novels. Hard on the nerves of timid folk. How a man came back after cremation and greatly disturbed his friends. American title "The Brocklebank Riddle."

Walpole, Hugh....."The Wooden Horse".....Doran, $1.25

A Cornish man returns after twenty years of New Zealand. The story is built around his broad outlook in contrast with the narrowness of his family at home. Those who read "The Duchess of Wrexe" (Musson, 1914), or "Fortitude" or "The Wooden Horse" will want to follow up this author's work.

Warner, Anne...."The Taming of Amorette: A Comedy of Manners".....Little, $1.00

Watson, H. B Marriott....."The House in the Downs".....Dent, $1.25

A romance of the contemplated invasion of England by Napoleon in 1805.

Wells, H. G....."Bealby: A Holiday".....Macmillan, $1.25

*

Bealby, a small boy, runs away rather than be "'a blooming servant." His week's adventures leave him wiser and somewhat sadder and he returns to take up his duties. A good bit of comedy.

Whitelaw, David....."The Mystery of Enid Belairs"..Hodder & Stoughton, $1.25

A BRIEF BIOGRAPHY OF CANADIAN HISTORY.

GENERAL INDEX

1. Archives, and Transactions and Proceedings of Historical Societies.
2. General Histories.
3. Constitutional Histories.
4. Early History to English Conquest: French Regime.
5. Provinces.
6. Periods.
7. Local History: chiefly Ontario.
8. Phases: Education, Art, Literature, Religion, Commerce and Industry.
9. Year Books and similar Publications.
10. Historical Fiction.

Note.—The following lists comprise books that are available either through the publisher, or the second-hand stores. Practically all of these books are in the larger libraries in Toronto, e.g., Legislative Library, Department of Education Library, Public Library and Ontario Historical Society Library. Certain kinds of books have been omitted, e.g., very rare books, those of local interest outside of Ontario, books that simply re-state what already appears in other books.

The principal sources for the compilation of these lists have been the catalogue of the Legislative Library, the Annual Reviews of Canadian Historical Publications, the A.L.A. Literature of American History, the card-catalogue of the Toronto Public Library, the library of the Ontario Historical Society, and the catalogues of Canadian publishers. In addition many of the entries have been made directly from the books.

SPECIAL NOTICES

Athenæum Subject Index to Periodicals .....London and New York:
B. F. Stevens & Brown, $12.25

The Index for 1915 will comprise about 10,000 entries from some 300 English, American and Continental periodicals.

Belgian Livre d'Or.—There has been prepared by the General Staff of the Belgian Army a "Livre d'Or de l'Armée Belge." This book, which is shortly to be published, will contain the names of all soldiers who have obtained a decoration or have been mentioned in the Orders of the Day, together with a statement of the circumstances under which the distinction was gained. It is thought that many libraries may wish to possess this record of brave deeds performed by the army of one of our Allies. The volume (price, 4 francs), will not be placed on sale in the ordinary way, but can be obtained by direct subscription. All requests for copies should be addressed to Lieutenant Radelet, Ministére de la Guerre Belge, Le Havre.
